

The Way of Renewal

by Joseph Slipyj

To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the passing away of Patriarch Joseph Cardinal Slipyj, on September 7th, 2014, his book “The Way of Renewal” was translated into English, with a foreword by Rev. Ivan Muzyczka, Rector Emeritus of the University of Pope St. Clement in Rome, which was founded by the author. This book was originally published by the author in 1928 in Lviv, the year he was appointed Rector of the Lviv Theological Academy by the Venerable Metropolitan Andrew Sheptytsky.

Providing insights that are as inspiring as they are unexpected, the young Joseph Slipyj writes about the importance of self-respect, solitude, and self-knowledge.

He discusses appropriate devotion to the saints, the central role of icons in Byzantine Christianity, and how to read and understand the Scriptures. In addition to offering a different perspective on St. Thomas Aquinas, the author tells us why we must still be Christians, and he shows how the Church can help catalyze renewal.
