

Transfiguration of Jesus Light Catcher Craft

This sun-catcher is meant to resemble the gleaming white light that Jesus shown on the mountain during His transfiguration.

To make this craft you will need:

- Jesus image - printed on stock paper
Choose the size you prefer on the following pages.
- wax paper (slightly smaller in size the printable image)
- crayons or colored pencils
- tape
- scissors

Instructions:

Print the image of Jesus onto stock/heavy paper.
Color the background behind Jesus.
It can be as simple as rays of light or details of a mountain scene with clouds.

Now cut out the circle and the Jesus shape.

Tape wax paper to the back so the light can shine through Jesus.

Use string, tape or tack putty to hang it on a window or a light/lamp.
Kids love shining flashlights through it too!!

Optional idea:

To make it "gift quality" or sturdy enough for younger children to play with, you could laminate it or put it in contact paper.
