

Jesus Cures the Garasene Demoniac - Simplified - Luke 8:26-39

One day Jesus and his friends were getting off a boat and a wild man with no clothes on came up to him and bowed down to him. Jesus knew that there were demons that were making him act that way. He told the demons to go out of the man. They did and the man was better. This scared the people in that town because they could see how strong and powerful that Jesus was. They asked Jesus to leave their town. The man who was cured wanted to stay with Jesus and follow Him. Instead Jesus told the man to go home and to tell all the people around that place all the good things that God had done for him.
