Saints of the Day (taken from OCA.org)

Holy Great Martyr Artemius of Antioch

Holy Great Martyr Artemius of Antioch was a prominent military leader during the reigns of the emperor Constantine the Great (May 21), and his son and successor Constantius (337-361). Artemius received many awards for distinguished service and courage. He was appointed viceroy of Egypt. In this official position he did much for the spreading and strengthening Christianity in Egypt.

Saint Artemius was sent by the emperor Constantius to bring the relics of the holy Apostle Andrew from Patras, and the relics of the holy Apostle Luke from Thebes of Boeotia, to Constantinople. The holy relics were placed in the Church of the Holy Apostles beneath the table of oblation. The emperor rewarded him by making him ruler of Egypt.

The emperor Constantius was succeeded on the throne by Julian the Apostate (361-363). Julian in his desire to restore paganism was extremely antagonistic towards Christians, sending hundreds to their death. At Antioch he ordered the torture of two bishops unwilling to forsake the Christian Faith.

During this time, Saint Artemius arrived in Antioch and publicly denounced Julian for his impiety. The enraged Julian subjected the saint to terrible tortures and threw the Great Martyr Artemius into prison. While Artemius was praying, Christ, surrounded by angels, appeared to him and said, "Take courage, Artemius! I am with you and will preserve you from every hurt which is inflicted upon you, and I already have prepared your crown of glory. Since you have confessed Me before the people on earth, so shall I confess you before My Heavenly Father. Therefore, take courage and rejoice, you shall be with Me in My Kingdom." Hearing this, Artemius rejoiced and offered up glory and thanksgiving to Him.

On the following day, Julian demanded that Saint Artemius honor the pagan gods. Meeting with steadfast refusal, the emperor resorted to further tortures. The saint endured all without a single moan. The saint told Julian that he would be justly recompensed for his persecution of Christians. Julian became furious and resorted to even more savage tortures, but they did not break the will of the saint. Finally the Great Martyr Artemius was beheaded.

His relics were buried by Christians. After the death of Saint Artemius, his prophecy about Julian the Apostate's impending death came true.

Julian left Antioch for a war with the Persians. Near the Persian city of Ctesiphon, Julian came upon an elderly Persian, who agreed to betray his countrymen and guide Julian's army. The old man deceived Julian and led his army into the Karmanite wilderness, where there was neither food nor water. Tired from hunger and thirst, Julian's army battled against fresh Persian forces.

Divine retribution caught up with Julian the Apostate. During the battle he was mortally wounded by an unseen hand and an unseen weapon. Julian groaned deeply said, "You have conquered, Galilean!" After the death of the apostate emperor, the relics of the Great Martyr Artemius were transferred with honor from Antioch to Constantinople.

Saint Artemius is invoked by those suffering from hernias.

This weekend several parishioners have been at the Eparchial Convention, where all of the church's main lay organizations have been meeting and discussing the "Next Steps" for the Church as we reach the conclusion of the "Vision 2020" program. For the first time at an Eparchial Convention we had the participation of Parish Pastoral Councils. Here they were introduced to the resources and personelle of the Eparchial Pastoral Centre, Discussed needs that are in common for all parishes, and looked at the draft version of the new PPC Guidelines.

The Youth of the Eparchy also had a program. They talked about social justice, their role in the church, and the how to seek and experience Christ. They have also discussed creating a pilgrimage to Winnipeg where they would experience the Welcome Home, a Ukrainian Catholic Mission Parish to the inner city poor.

(If you know any other people who should be on this list: please email me.)
- We wish God's blessings and happy birthday to our parishioners: Sera Nahachewsky, Victor Lirette, Ihor Genyk, Anne Tymko and Jack Bawol who all celebrate their birthdays this week. God grant you many years!
- If we don't have your birthday, or if we have your birthday info wrong... please send an email (or at least a piece of paper) with your corrected birthdate and name.
- THIS FRIDAY! AND IT'S FREE FOR PARISHIONERS OF DORMITION. ALL ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND: The Eparchy of Edmonton invites you to participate in a Cantoring Course on Friday, October 25 (6:00-9:00 pm); and Saturday, October 26 (9:00 am to 4:00 pm), concluding with Great Vespers at 4:00 pm., at St. Josaphat Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral, 10825 - 97th Street, Edmonton. Topics include: the Divine Liturgy, the Eight Resurrectional Tones (Troparia, Kontakia, Prokeimena, Alleluia with verses), and various changeable parts for Major Feasts, including the festal Irmos. Everything will be covered in English and Ukrainian (including transliteration). Cost: $40 includes course materials, lunch and snacks. To register contact the Pastoral Centre (chancery@edmontoneparchy.com) or (780) 424-5496. Questions can also be directed to Dr. Melanie Turgeon (melanie.turgeon@kingsu.ca)."
- Roman Kobyletsky, Seminarian-Pastoral Intern, will receive the Laying-on of Hands (Ordination) to the Diaconate, by Bishop David, on Sunday, November 17, at the 10:00 am, Divine Liturgy and Praznyk (Parish Feast Day), Saint Josaphat Cathedral.

- Pope Francis proclaimed an Extraordinary Missionary Month to be celebrated this October: *Baptized and Sent, the Church of Christ on Mission in the World (see below for more details).
To mark the Extraordinary Missionary Month, parishes/parish districts within the Eparchy of Edmonton are invited to celebrate the role families play in passing on the Gospel message to their children and grandchildren. In particular, parishes/parish districts are invited to organize during the month of October a special Divine Liturgy – one of the regularly scheduled Sunday Divine Liturgies, or another day – to honour and bless couples who are celebrating their 25th or 50th Wedding Anniversaries (and other significant years). Children and grandchildren are invited to be present on this jubilee occasion with their parents and grandparents. Pastors are asked to include a special petition in the Divine Liturgy for the couples' intention, and to invite the couples together with their families to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy for a special blessing. Families are indeed missionaries, sharing the Good News of the Gospel with their children. May Christ bless them abundantly with his love!
- The Ukrainian Catholic Bishops in Canada appointed Rev. Ephrem Kardouh, bso, Spiritual Director of Holy Spirit Seminary, Edmonton, effective October 1, 2019. Father Ephrem is a Melkite Greek-Catholic priest of the Basilian Salvatorian Order. He holds a Master of Divinity from Saint Pope John XXIII Seminary, Weston, Massachusetts, as well as professional training in Clinical Pastoral Education. Since 2015, Father Ephrem has served as Pastoral Administrator (Melkite Greek-Catholic) of Saint Basil Parish, Calgary, and Saint Nicholas Parish, Edmonton. At the same time he was Chaplain at Foothills Hospital, Calgary.

For the time being Fr. Ephrem is celebrating Liturgies for St. Nicholas Melkite Parish. Fr. Issa is currently traveling to Calgary to celebrate for St. Basil's Melkite Parish.

Changeable Parts for Today's Divine Liturgy

Troparion (recited): When You went down to death, O Life Immortal,* You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity.* When You raised the dead from the nether world,* all the powers of heaven cried out:* “O Giver of Life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

+ Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion (recited): You rose from the tomb, O almighty Saviour,* and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose.* Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults.* And the world, my Saviour, sings Your praises for ever.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion (recited): The tomb and death could not hold the Mother of God,* unceasing in her intercession and an unfailing hope of patronage,* for as the Mother of Life she was transferred to life* by Him Who had dwelt in her ever-virgin womb.

Prokeimenon (recited):

The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

Epistle: 2 Corinthians 11:31-12:9

The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands. It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord: I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— how he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not boast, except in my infirmities. For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. And He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Alleluia:

verse: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

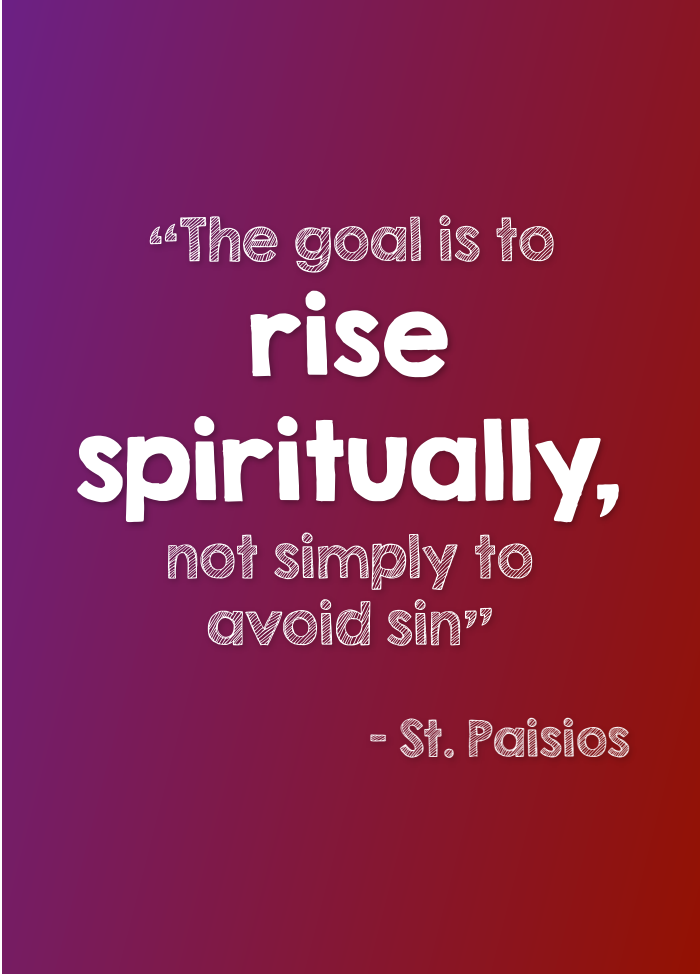

verse: Lord, grant victory to the king and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

Gospel: Luke 6:31-36

Do to others as you would have them do to you. “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

“The goal is to
spiritually, not simply to avoid sin”

- St. Paisios
