Sunday, October 6

Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost, Tone 8; The Holy and Glorious Apostle Thomas

Our Perogy Supper will be held on Saturday, November 2. Tickets are $17 each (for adults). Tell your friends and family to join us.

Also, if you are able, please sign up to help. The volunteer sheets are found in the Narthex (Church Entrance).

THANK YOU to our UCWLC, and all those who helped by making donations towards our food drive for Our Lady of Peace Catholic School.

One of the ongoing charitable projects which our UCWLC (Ukrainian Catholic Women's League of Canada) is regularly supporting OLOP school by providing food for the children. Due to the nature of our neighbourhood many of these children do not come to school having eaten breakfast nor bringing any lunches. For some of them, the food that the school gives out is the only food they will eat that day.

The last few Sundays I was polling the parish to figure out what would be the best times for us to put on parish programs. It seems that no matter what we choose we will never be able to satisfy everyone, but, I will do my best to serve as many people as I can. Starting now:

- All Major Church Feasts will have a Divine Liturgy celebrated on the actual feast day at 7pm. (unless that is not possible, which will be noted in bulletins in advance)
- I am also planning to put together a 4-6 session "Understanding the Divine Liturgy" series that I hope to start on Wednesday nights starting in November.
- During fasts (Pre-Christmas & Lent) and at other times of the year, we will also have regular special services announced, likely on Wednesdays.
- These "Understanding the Divine Liturgy" sessions will also be available in some form to people online.
- Other programs will be done in the new year.

Also, so far, we have at least five people from our parish who told me that they plan to participate in the Eparchial Cantoring course on Oct. 25. YOU can still register, and our parish will pay your fee.

ALL interested (even those 5 who mentioned it) MUST REGISTER THEMSELVES. Information on how to register are in the "News" section of this bulletin.

Saints of the Day (taken from OCA.org)

Holy, Glorious Apostle Thomas

The Holy and Glorious Apostle Thomas was born in the Galilean city of Pansada and was a fisherman. Hearing the good tidings of Jesus Christ, he left all and followed after Him. The Apostle Thomas is included in the number of the holy Twelve Apostles of the Saviour.

According to Holy Scripture, the holy Apostle Thomas did not believe the reports of the other disciples about the Resurrection of Jesus Christ: "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe" (John 20:25).

On the eighth day after the Resurrection, the Lord appeared to the Apostle Thomas and showed him His wounds. "My Lord and my God," the Apostle cried out (John 20:28). "Thomas, being once weaker in faith than the other apostles," says Saint John Chrysostom, "toiled through the grace of God more bravely, more zealously and tirelessly than them all, so that he went preaching over nearly all the earth, not fearing to proclaim the Word of God to savage nations."

Some icons depicting this event are inscribed "The Doubting Thomas." This is incorrect. In Greek, the inscription reads, "The Touching of Thomas." In Slavonic, it says, "The Belief of Thomas." When Saint Thomas touched the Life-giving side of the Lord, he no longer had any doubts.

According to Church Tradition, the holy Apostle Thomas founded Christian churches in Palestine, Mesopotamia, Parthia, Ethiopia and India. Preaching the Gospel earned him a martyr's death. For having converted the wife and son of the prefect of the Indian city of Meliapur [Melipur], the holy apostle was locked up in prison, suffered torture, and finally, pierced with five spears, he departed to the Lord. Part of the relics of the holy Apostle Thomas are in India, in Hungary and on Mt. Athos. The name of the Apostle Thomas is associated with the Arabian (or Arapet) Icon of the Mother of God (September 6).

National Catholic Health Care Week

October 6 - 12, 2019

From October 6 to 12, we will celebrate the very first National Catholic Health Care Week in Canada. This week organized by the Catholic Health Alliance of Canada provides the opportunity to highlight the inspiring work of Catholic health care organizations—such as Covenant Health, Covenant Care, Covenant Living and other organizations that support health and wellbeing—both in our diocese and across Canada. At the heart of Catholic health care is a deep respect for the intrinsic value and dignity of every human being and an unwavering commitment to serving all people, from all backgrounds and faiths – especially society’s most vulnerable.

During National Catholic Health Care Week, we give thanks for the courageous gift of Catholic health care. Whether it be in hospitals, community health centers, or seniors care homes, Catholic health care provides purpose-driven care with compassion and innovation. Each year, Catholic health care providers serve more than five million people in need in Canada. Every person who contributes to working in Catholic health care is living out the healing ministry of Jesus Christ by helping those who are most marginalized by society. We give thanks for the thousands of physicians, nurses, employees, and volunteers who give of themselves to care for all in need.

For more information about Catholic health care in Canada or the week, please visit www.chac.ca or www.passiontoheal.ca.

Glory be to Jesus Christ!

“PASS IT ON”

Dear Catechists,

I greet all of you as we begin a new Catechetical Year! And I express my gratitude to you on behalf of all the pastors of the Church for your beautiful ministry!

Imagine, Jesus' last words as he returns to the Father are addressed directly to catechists. Following his Resurrection, he says, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age”(Matthew 28: 18-20).

With this, Jesus commissions his disciples, and not only his disciples, but all of us, to be catechists.

To be a catechist means to “pass it on.”

Let me explain.

My Grade 3 teacher was Mrs. James. Among the many lessons she taught us was how important is listening. She did so through a game known as the Telephone Game. In this popular children's game, the players stand in a circle, and the first player thinks up a short phrase and whispers it into the ear of the next player. The second player repeats the phrase into the ear of the next player, and so on. The last player says the phrase out loud. The fun in the game is to see whether or not the last phrase resembles the first, which can be quite funny when it doesn't (either through poor listening skills or when one of the players deliberately changes the phrase half-way through the game!)

Some common phrases in playing the game today are: “When I grow up, I want to be an elevator;” or “The best chips are chocolate chips;” or “Wouldn't the Minions look funny in contact lenses.”

If we play the game using Bible phrases, some popular phrases might be: “God is love;” or “Without Jesus, we can do nothing;” or, for the more adventurous, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life” (which is the very first “big” Bible verse that I learned as a youth!).

Our faith is intended to be passed on, from one generation to the next. Indeed, we can judge what makes a parish successful (or a family for that matter, which is the domestic Church) is its ability to pass on the faith from one generation of parishioners to the next, that is from parents to their children, and then to their grandchildren.

Catechists, as begin a new Catechetical Year, I pray that the Holy Spirit blesses you and your ministry in passing on our faith in Jesus Christ – who loves and cares for us – to our children, youth, and adults whom you teach, but also to your own children, family, and friends.

God bless you!

In Christ,

Bishop David Motiuk Chair, Patriarchal Catechetical Commission

Children and grandchildren are invited to be present on this jubilee occasion with their parents and grandparents. Pastors are asked to include a special petition in the Divine Liturgy for the couples' intention, and to invite the couples together with their families to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy for a special blessing. # VOTING AS CATHOLICS

2019 Federal Election Guide

Voting: A Right and Responsibility

Canadian Catholics are being called upon as citizens to exercise their right to vote. The Church encourages and reasserts its belief in “the political freedom and responsibility of citizens.”<sup>1</sup> By exercising their right to vote, citizens fulfill their duty of choosing a government and at the same time send a clear signal to the candidates being presented by their political parties for election. The important time leading up to an election also provides Canadians with the opportunity to interact with fellow voters, one’s neighbours, and the candidates themselves (particularly during their visits to neighbourhoods), raising awareness about the values, views, and concerns shared by Catholics across the country.

Political candidates are citizens, too. In addition, they assume responsibility for the well-being of the public. Their commitment and dedication are a generous contribution to society’s common good. Indeed, the purpose of the political community is itself the common good, namely, “the sum of those conditions of [...] social life whereby people, families and associations more adequately and readily may attain their own perfection.”<sup>2</sup>

Working to Build a Better Society

While Christian beliefs do not constitute a political platform, they can be seen as a prism through which to analyze and evaluate government policies, laws, and programs. The principles of respect for life from conception to natural death and of the dignity of the human person should influence how Christians assess a party’s position on key moral issues. Choosing life also means being always concerned for the weakest among us – physically, economically, and socially. It likewise implies the protection of the most fundamental human rights, including the right to religious freedom and freedom of conscience.

A more just society is also built when we live in solidarity and dialogue with different social partners, including Indigenous Peoples, as well as by supporting families and ensuring adequate funding for education, healthcare, housing, and the prevention and treatment of addictions.

Working with fellow citizens to address social concerns is fundamentally built on a view of the person inherently belonging to a community. To ensure our communities are truly welcoming and humane, we must also combat all forms of poverty, which inevitably result in the segregation and isolation of individuals.

Canada in the World: Providing Leadership for Justice and Peace

Believing in justice and peace includes daring to take a stand against the arms trade and against human trafficking, which exploits young people and workers. It means entering into international treaties that respect the planet, our common home, as well as tirelessly working for the expansion of peace everywhere.

Voting Means Using Your Judgment

Exercising the right to vote means making informed and discerning judgments about the options available. There are times, however, when making a decision about who to vote for may prove very difficult. The Church reminds us that “in this context, it must be noted also that a well-formed Christian conscience does not permit one to vote for a political program or an individual law in which the fundamental content of faith and morals is replaced by the introduction of proposals differing from this content or opposing it.”<sup>3</sup>

It is a sign of a healthy democratic community when informed and responsible citizens engage in an ongoing dialogue on major social issues with their political leaders. This is precisely the kind of community we should strive to support and develop. No less is expected of us, since all are called to take an active part in morally shaping the societies we inhabit and, Christians in particular, to defend the rights of those who are most vulnerable.

September 2019 | Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops | Permanent Council

After the Plenary Assembly of Bishops itself, as the second highest instance of authority within the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (C.C.B.), the Permanent Council, acting on behalf of (and reporting to) the former, is authorized to speak on behalf of the entire membership of the C.C.B. between plenary meetings, among its other responsibilities. Elected for a two-year term by the members present at the Plenary Assembly, the Council is composed of a minimum of 12 Bishops, equally represented by English and French speaking parts of the country.

Epistle: 2 Corinthians 6:16-7:1

What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will live in them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you, and I will be your father, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty." Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and of spirit, making holiness perfect in the fear of God.

Gospel: Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon." But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, "Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed instantly.
